World History: Patterns of Interaction © 2012 is a highly integrated, high school world history textbook program with enhanced HISTORY® curriculum that provides teachers with a practical and motivational approach to help students think critically and reflectively. Together, HMH & HISTORY® infuse social studies with streaming video and interactive features that bring content to life for students and help them make connections between the past and present. Meeting the needs of all learners is no easy task. This is why Houghton Mifflin Harcourt created World History: Patterns of Interaction. Designed to engage students with the narrative while integrating rich multimedia assets, the program brings content to life for students and enriches their understanding. - Publisher.

Maps and perforated, reproducible pages to help children become familiar with the function of maps and how to find locations on a map or globe. Correlated to National Geography Standards.

Glencoe World History is a full-survey world history program authored by a world-renowned historian, Jackson Spielvogel, and the National Geographic Society. Experiencing world history and understanding its relevance to the modern world is the goal of this program. The program addresses the importance of motivating students and engaging them in meaningful learning - learning that links the past with issues confronting young people today. Glencoe World History addresses student learning on many levels and encourages the reader to become actively involved with the beautifully presented content.
