Rob had not been in love with her when he'd married her. This, Maria concluded, was why he had not been able to keep his marriage vows. When he betrayed her just a few years into their marriage, she wanted to leave him immediately, despite the fact that she still loved him. But knowing how their separation would devastate their children, she decided to stay, at least until both children were old enough. Now, nearly a decade after their estrangement, Rob and Maria find themselves in the same tour group doing the Camino de Santiago. She'd joined the tour, hoping it would help assuage her grief over her partner's death; Rob had joined because he thought it would be 'fun'. Neither of them could have predicted how much the Camino tour would transform their lives. The lives of Nina and Joy, friends and neighbors of Maria who did the Camino with them, and those of the other pilgrims in their group are transformed as well. This is their story too.
