life, with his eyes wide open and his heart exposed. The eyes have seen too much. The heart has taken a few hits. It started with a poem. One poem reflecting a single thought. Then a second and a third and a fourth. The poems span a period and, in themselves, have become a reflection of the writer, me. The observations are not so unusual. It is unusual, however, I guess, to maintain a printed word of the journey.

An urgent message brings Sophie Stephanou back to the Athens home of her estranged husband, Jason. All the turbulent emotions and suspicions that caused her to flee from him two years before come tumbling back, destroying her hard-won contentment. But Jason seems different now. Has he really changed? Can they recapture the love they once shared, or is it only moon madness? Contemporary Romance by Freda Vasilopoulos writing as Freda Vasilos; originally published by Silhouette Desire

When General Orix Monash defected from the Dazon armada to protect Earth, he expected some fear and suspicion. What he didn't expect was to find his mate among the Earth women at the Moon's consulate. Mary Catherine Jones is the caretaker for the orphaned human-Dazon hybrid babies, but when he looks at Mac, he wants to take care of her forever. She feels the pull too, and they're quickly drawn together—and drawn into a plot that involves a traitor and the first battle in Emperor Aryk's bid to steal Earth women for mating purposes. Each book in the Dazon Agenda series focuses on a different couple while expanding the overarching plot. It is recommended to read the books in order. Ten thousand years ago, humans and fairies fought a great battle for the magical island of Ireland. When it became clear to the fairy families that they could never win, they decided to move their civilization underground and keep themselves hidden from the humans. All the fairy families agreed on this, except the 8th family, the demons. The demons planned to lift their small island out of time until they had regrouped and were ready to wage war on the humans once more. However the time spell went wrong, and the island of Hybras was catapulted into Limbo, where it has remained for ten thousand years.

Five alphas. One omega. The fate of their pack is in their hands. But what about the fate of their hearts? When Ray presents as an omega instead of an alpha, his life changes forever. As a male omega, he's expected to mate with a select group of alphas and start a pack of his own. The five men selected for him are as different as they are keen. And one of them is his best friend, Josh, who Ray was sure could never return his feelings. But now they all must deal with the mating instinct that the power of the Moon brings out in them; and after that... Ray will have bigger problems than a crush. Can Ray become the submissive omega his pack needs him to be? Will the alphas understand how hard it is for him, or demand more than he can give? If you enjoy dark romance, you'll love N.J.
