Meister Eckhart [c. 1260-c. 1328] speaks of a place in the depths of our soul in which God alone can dwell and in which we dwell in God. Meeting God in this place, we are invited to sink into what he calls "the eternity of the Divine essence." Doing so, however,

Home with God: In a Life That Never Ends was written by Neale Donald Walsch, and published in 2006. If you are new to Neale's work, in the early 1990s, Neale was at perhaps the lowest time in his life. He actually lived as a homeless person for about a year. He lost his family, his job and even had a car accident that left him seriously hurt.

That Never Ends did the same thing with regard to life and what happens after we disembark from the Earth plane and put me at peace knowing that we never really die, we just move on to the afterlife when our soul's purpose here has been achieved. It made me lose the fear of the unknown on the other side.
