This guide, "How to Fence" will allow anyone the knowledge they need to know to begin a new hobby in fencing. Including pictures of samples such as footwork, weapons and strategies this guide could help the beginning fencer with techniques and more. This guide can also give the person who would love to try a new hobby a glimpse into the benefits of a sport that will offer excellent cardiovascular workouts. Pictures of various weapons and parts of weapons will give the beginner an idea of the different choices out there when they decide to not buy a whole weapon, but make their own. Also included are helpful instructions on how to keep your weapons and other articles in great shape so you won't have to replace them all the time. Not only will the reader have access to all this information, but they'll also learn that there are many places where you can set up an area and practice their fencing. Get a group of friends together who may be interested in learning something new and an open area and break out the swords, you just might be able to begin learning fencing. It's not as hard as you thought it might be! About the Expert John Beeler has been fencing for over 21 years, and is an avid lover of the sport. He has been teaching Christine the sport for almost a year now. With each of their loves of the sport, they thought it would be nice to let others know how easy it was to get into fencing. Between John's knowledge of the sport and Christine's writing ability, they have put together an instruction manual that can have anyone, of any age beginning the new hobby of fencing. John and Christine are also hoping to one day begin their own fencing school. HowExpert publishes quick 'how to' guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.
