One Night That Changes Everything was exactly the type of read where you go "why can't my life be as cool as this?" And sure, Eliza has to do a whole bunch of stuff that's outside of her comfort zone but who doesn't want to run around all night with their best friends doing adventurous things? That was one of my favorite bits about this book.

One Night That Changes Everything Chapter 2. Ashley "What the hell is this?" I start waving around the paper around, flapping it back and forth in the air, not unlike the way a crazy person might do. "What the hell is what?" Samantha asks. She drops her boobs, crosses the room in two strides, and plucks the paper out of my hand.

One Night That Changes Everything Chapter 3. Ashley. 7:37 p.m. "What the hell is in the damn thing?" Samantha asks. The three of us have piled into Samantha's car and are on the Mass Pike traveling at about eighty miles an hour. Usually I'm not a fan of Sam (or anyone, really) driving that fast, but at this point, speed is the least of my worries.
