Our Transcendent Nature from Experience and Reason. $ 19.95. Fr.
Spitzer's work provides a bright light in the midst of the darkness by presenting traditional and contemporary evidence for God and a transphysical soul from several major sources. It shows that we are transcendent beings with souls capable of surviving bodily death; that we are self-reflective beings aware of and able to strive toward perfect truth, love, goodness, and beauty; that we ...

The Soul's Upward Yearning: Clues to Our Transcendent Nature from Experience and Reason. Robert J. Spitzer. Since the early twentieth century, scientific materialism has so undermined our belief in the human capacity for transcendence that many people find it difficult to believe in God and the human soul. The materialist perspective has not only cast its spell on the natural sciences, psychology, philosophy, and literature, it has also enthralled popular culture, which offers very little ...

Since the early twentieth century, "scientific materialism" has so undermined our belief in the human capacity for transcendence that many people find it difficult to believe in God and the human soul. The many signs of the widespread loss of confidence in our ability to soar upward were validated in 2004 by a study published in the American Journal of Psychiatry that linked the absence of religion with a marked increase in suicide, meaninglessness ...

In The Soul's Upward Yearning, Father Spitzer provides both traditional and contemporary evidence for God and a transphysical soul from several major sources. It shows that we are transcendent beings with souls capable of surviving bodily death; that we are self-reflective beings aware of and able to strive toward perfect truth, love, goodness, and beauty; that we have the dignity of being created in the very image of God.
