Sam and the Frog is a 30 page beginning reader book for preschoolers. Sam and the Frog are in a competition to see who can outdo the other. Who can hop, eat, swim, smile, or wave the best? Why does the frog think Sam won? Students will laugh at the comical cartoon drawings. Sam and the Frog is an easy book to read for emergent readers. The repetitive phrases help students to feel successful. This amusing book makes learning to read fun.

This book teaches us how to know and understand ourselves radically and how to know and understand others. This book reveals the possibilities that we have ignored in ourselves and teaches us how to be everything we possibly can. From this book we can learn how to empathise fully with others, demolishing the barriers of misunderstanding between human beings. This book shows us how to transcend ideologies and discloses the major underground trends that have governed and will govern the history of the world. The Splendour of the Human Being is a complete exposition of MAT – the Meta-model of Analysis that Transforms – of which it has been said: “MAT represents for the human sciences what the theory of relativity represented in its day for the physical sciences”. This book teaches us the laws that govern the human order, guiding us into the third millennium and anchoring us in it. Because it achieves the fusion between art and science which produces the splendour of the human being.
