Thunder of Heaven by Tim LaHaye and Craig Parshall is the second book of their End Series. It continues the story of Joshua Jordan and his family living in the final days of earth before Jesus' Second Coming. As I said in my review of the first book, this series falls more under Political Thriller than End Times Fiction.

Are the recurring dreams Joshua has had about the coming rapture from God. And is the end sooner than anyone expects? Mark of Evil Ethan March, Jimmy Louder, and Rivka Reuban have been left behind in a world that is rapidly coming under the influence of the Antichrist. Technology is being used to control and dominate those who resist the Antichrist's reign of evil. Each day, as more and more biblical prophecies are fulfilled, Ethan and the others in the Remnant struggle to survive in a world of ever-increasing chaos and desperation. When the forces of evil attempt to use the world's most powerful information system for increasingly sinister purposes and eliminate everyone who gets in their way, it's up to Ethan and the Remnant to subvert their purposes and instead use them for the glory of God.
