Madame et Alice is written by a high school teacher of French along with one of her students who studied five years of French.Dr. Soper, the teacher-author, opens the book by describing her responsibilities along with different teaching techniques for promoting and enhancing student learning. At the end of each chapter Alice, the student co-author, adds a student's perspective to Dr. Soper's teaching techniques.The book concludes with two chapters that depict Dr. Soper's educational and personal philosophies. As a 32-year educator, Dr. Soper incorporates change into her teaching by being the same person.

This textbook includes all 13 chapters of Français interactif. It accompanies www.laits.utexas.edu/fi, the web-based French program developed and in use at the University of Texas since 2004, and its companion site, Tex's French Grammar (2000) www.laits.utexas.edu/tex/ Français interactif is an open access site, a free and open multimedia resources, which requires neither password nor fees. Français interactif has been funded and created by Liberal Arts Instructional Technology Services at the University of Texas, and is currently supported by COERLL, the Center for Open Educational Resources and Language Learning UT-Austin, and the U.S. Department of Education Fund for the Improvement of Post-Secondary Education (FIPSE Grant P116B070251) as an example of the open access initiative.

Following the organization of the main text, this essential resource provides additional out-of-class practice, with four parts to each unit. Français écrit and Français parle contain written and listening activities, respectively, for all three lessons in a unit. Vie pratique offers both written and listening activities based on the practical language section, and Images du monde Francophone provides written and listening activities based on the cultural magazine sections. Revision tests appear after Unites 3, 6, 9, and 11. Important Notice: Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version.
