Werewolf society is based on the pack. The pack is a family, biological or adoptive, of werewolves who live and function together as a unit. The emotional ties of the pack are very strong and are the central focus of werewolf existence. Much like wolf packs, werewolf packs are led by one strong leader, often male, but sometimes female.

A transformed werewolf can kill or knock unconscious another, untransformed werewolf in one pounce or one attack with their teeth and claws, much like a deer being able to kill a wolf with one kick. While transformed, a werewolf's limited movements make it difficult for them to evade or block attacks or fight creatively, which hampers their ...
